Handwriting practice row for the letter 'W'. The background is divided into three horizontal bands: light blue at the top, light green in the middle, and light brown at the bottom. On the left side, there is a cloud in the blue band, a mole with its head and two legs sticking out of a hole in the brown band, and the text 'wig wig' written in a pink, cursive font. In the center, there are two 'W' characters: a solid black one with three green stars above it and three black arrows indicating the stroke order (down, up, down, up, down), and a dashed grey one for tracing. On the right side, there is a sun partially hidden behind a cloud in the blue band and a tuft of green grass in the green band.
